7 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
8 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
9 AT SEATTLE

10 MADIHA MINER,

11 Plaintiff,

12 v.

13 KING COUNTY SUPERIOR
14 COURT - JUVENILE,

15 Defendant.

CASE NO. C19-0847JLR

ORDER REMANDING ACTION
TO STATE COURT

16 Before the court is pro se Plaintiff Madiha Miner's June 5, 2019, notice of 17 removal of her own lawsuit from King County Superior Court. (See NOR (Dkt. #4).)

18 For the reasons stated below, the court sua sponte REMANDS this action to state court.

19 Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction and "may not exercise jurisdiction
20 absent a statutory basis." Exxon Mobile Corp. v. Allapattah Servs., Inc., 545 U.S. 546, 21 552 (2005). Further, a federal court has "an independent obligation to determine whether 22 subject-matter jurisdiction exists, even when no party challenges it." Hertz Corp. v.

1 Friend, 559 U.S. 7, 94 (2010). With regard to removed cases, 28 U.S.C. § 1447(c) states,
2 in pertinent part: “If at any time before final judgment it appears that the district court
3 lacks subject matter jurisdiction, the case shall be remanded.”

4 Removal statutes are strictly construed. See Moore-Thomas v. Alaska Airlines,
5 Inc., 553 F.3d 1241, 1244 (9th Cir. 2009). Section 1441(a) provides:

6 Except as otherwise expressly provided by Act of congress, any civil action
7 brought in a State court of which the district courts on the United States have 8 original jurisdiction, may be removed by the defendant or the defendants, to the district court of the United States for the district and division embracing the place where such action is pending.

9 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a) (italics added). Likewise, Section 1446(a) states:

10 A defendant or defendants desiring to remove any civil action from a State
11 court shall file in the district court of the United States for the district and 12 division within which such action is pending a notice of removal signed 13 pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and containing a short and plain statement of the grounds for removal, together with a copy of all process, pleadings, and orders served upon such defendant or defendants in such action.

14 28 U.S.C. § 1446 (italics added).

15 As the language of the foregoing statutes dictate, only defendants have the right to 16 remove an action from state court. See Shamrock Oil & Gas Corp. v. Sheets, 313 U.S.
17 100, 104-09 (1941) (concluding that Congress intended to limit the right to remove an 18 action to defendants only and that a suit containing a counterclaim is not removable by a
19 plaintiff); In re Walker, 375 F.2d 678, 678 (9th Cir. 1967) (per curiam) (“No right exists 20 in favor of a person who, as plaintiff, has filed an action in state court, to cause the 21 removal of such action to a federal court.”); In re Hartford Litig. Cases, 642 F. App’x
22 733, 736 (9th Cir. 2016) (unpublished) (“The [appellants] were plaintiffs in the state

1 court, and therefore cannot use the removal statutes they invoke.”) (citing 28 U.S.C.
2 §§ 1441, 1443, 1446).

3 “Federal jurisdiction must be rejected if there is any doubt as to the right of 4 removal in the first instance.” Gaus v. Miles, Inc., 980 F.2d 564, 566 (9th Cir. 1992)
5 (citing Libhart v. Santa Monica Dairy Co., 592 F.2d 1062, 1064 (9th Cir. 1979)).

6 Although a district court may not remand a case sua sponte for a non-jurisdictional defect
7 in removal, Kelton Arms Condo. Owners Ass’n, Inc. v. Homestead Ins. Co., 346 F.3d
8 1190, 1191 (9th Cir. 2003), both the Supreme Court and the Ninth Circuit have referred 9 to the restriction to defendants of the right to remove a case as jurisdictional, see
10 Shamrock, 313 U.S. at 107 (stating that the restriction to defendants of the right of 11 removal “indicat[es] the Congressional purpose to narrow the federal jurisdiction on 12 removal”); see also In re Walker, 375 F.3d at 678 (affirming the district court’s holding 13 that it was without jurisdiction because the plaintiff did not have the right to remove its 14 own case under 28 U.S.C. § 1441, 1443, 1446). Accordingly, the court concludes that it
15 lacks jurisdiction over Ms. Miner’s complaint and ORDERS the case REMANDED to 16 state court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1447(c).

17 Specifically, court ORDERS that:

- 18 1. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1447(c) and 1447(d), all further proceedings in this 19 case are REMANDED to King County Superior Court in the State of 20 Washington,
- 21 2. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1447(c), the Clerk shall mail a certified copy of the 22 order of remand to the Clerk of the Court for King County Superior Court,

- 1 3. The Clerk shall also transmit the record herein to the Clerk of the Court for 2 King County Superior Court,
- 3 4. The parties shall file nothing further in this matter, and instead are instructed 4 to seek any further relief to which they believe they are entitled from the 5 courts of the State of Washington, as may be appropriate in due course, and
- 6 5. The Clerk shall CLOSE this case.

7 Dated this 19th day of June, 2019.
